BIOGRAPHY

DJ for more than 20 years, label owner, record dealer, promoter, writer and graphic designer – Marco Sönke's addiction to music is reflected in several ways and made him one of the most acclaimed DJs in the scene. He performed at almost every acclaimed club in the region of Frankfurt and nationwide and in 2007 he became resident DJ in Frankfurt's world famous CocoonClub. He played major clubs in cities like Berlin, Hamburg, Cologne or Munich, internationally in the UK, Switzerland, France, and Pacha Ibiza. He was Djing at Sensation White in Düsseldorf and worked on company events for Baccardi, Audi, Gauloises, Mini and Saatchi & Saatchi. Marco regularly organized the excessive smart parties at the IAA car trade show in Frankfurt.

After playing seven years in Frankfurt's top location King Kamehameha Club he became resident at Cocoon Club, one of the most impressive club concepts Germany has ever seen. As resident DJ he was also responsible for the program and played along major acts like David Guetta, Afrojack, Fedde Le Grand, Axwell, Oliver $, Zedd, Laidback Luke and many more.

Beyond that he works as a graphic designer and created many club concepts and release artworks over the years. He's one of the team members for PUR magazine, where he's working as graphic designer, writer and DJ. He was co-owner of Brickhouse records, which has released tracks with works by the likes of Trentemøller, Switch, Tiefschwarz, Steve Angello or Boris Dlugosch. Envy, one of Germany's leading event agencies also uses his talents for their events. And he's one of the main DJs at planet radio nightwax, one of Germany's most popular house music radio shows.

His sound is influenced by old school funk & soul and the New York house sound of the early 90s. He combines various styles of house music and other styles in his sets with impressive technical skills, mixing everything from deep and funky house, NuDisco, Garage and dirty jackin house music in a dynamic and pushing way. With his range he manages to attract a mainstream crowd as well as underground clubbers.

Today he's still looking for fresh sounds, plays at Frankfurt's new trendy location Chinaski and just joined the Phat Duck agency team.
